

Meet Lindsey

Lindsey Webb, a seasoned professional in the recruitment industry, currently serves as a Partner at Relate Search. With a diverse and accomplished career spanning various roles, Lindsey has consistently demonstrated her expertise and commitment to fostering meaningful connections. Her journey, from a degree in Opera and Vocal Performance to becoming a leading figure in recruitment, reflects her dynamic and adventurous approach to life and work.

Before joining Relate Search, Lindsey held pivotal roles such as Director of Sales Operations, Branch Manager, and Vice President in well-known firms like International Market Recruiters, Lucas Group, and Korn Ferry. Her journey began as a Recruiter in the Financial Services industry, marking the initiation of a career characterized by continuous growth and achievement.

What Lindsey finds most fulfilling in her work is the art of connection. She thrives on building relationships with clients, candidates, and her teams, consistently adding value to businesses and positively impacting lives. Her expertise in Technology spans the executive recruitment of CIOs, CTOs and CISOs to professional recruitment of Managers, Directors and VPs in security, IT operations, project management, data analytics and software development. Her love for learning, attention to detail, and adeptness at managing end-to-end search processes highlight her passion for the ever-evolving challenges that recruitment presents.

Lindsey was born in Oklahoma and has called Texas home for nearly 30 years. She started her recruiting career in New York City and now resides in Houston. Outside the professional arena, her interests include musical theater, cooking, reading and spending as much time as possible with her niece and 3 nephews. A globetrotter at heart, Lindsey's favorite travel destination is Thailand, and she equally enjoys the tranquility and beauty of mountains and beaches. As a sports enthusiast, she is a lifelong fan of Oklahoma Sooners football and is an avid Houston Astros supporter. Lindsey shares her life with her partner Ore and a cherished 20-year-old cat, Ella.
