

Meet Amy

Amy McCain is a dedicated and accomplished Partner and Executive Recruiter at Relate Search, specializing in Technology recruitment. With a career spanning leadership roles at Vaco, Korn Ferry, Lucas Group, and Robert Half, Amy brings extensive expertise and a passion for helping individuals and organizations achieve their goals. Her deep understanding of the ever-changing recruitment industry, paired with her commitment to transparency and problem-solving, has made her a trusted advisor to clients and candidates alike.

Amy's recruitment journey began as a Recruiting Manager and has grown into a distinguished career that includes titles such as Managing Director and Sector Leader. She excels in filling roles across the technology spectrum, working closely with clients to understand the problems they need solved and with candidates to help them advance their careers. Amy is particularly proud of her ability to grow and build high-performing teams, guiding others to realize their potential and achieve success.

At Relate Search, Amy thrives on building meaningful connections. She listens intently, digs into details, and fosters transparency to ensure the perfect fit between clients and candidates. Her passion lies in helping companies adapt to the evolving hiring market while retaining top talent, all while learning about the innovative ways organizations operate. Her favorite moments are seeing candidates land roles that transform their careers and witnessing the impact her placements have on her clients' success.

Born in Greenville, Ohio, Amy earned her Bachelor's degree from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Her personal journey has taken her from Ohio and Kentucky to Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Salt Lake City, Utah. Outside of work, Amy enjoys hiking, traveling anywhere and everywhere, and spending time with her family. She lives with her husband, Dan, and their two sons, Owen and Finn, along with their dog, Rainey. A fan of Notre Dame and the University of Cincinnati, Amy balances her professional achievements with a love for the outdoors and her commitment to environmental and animal causes.
